

Frank Craggen - Dad's 4th son
 Alice Craggen - Mom's 1st son
 Parents of James William (Bill) Craggen

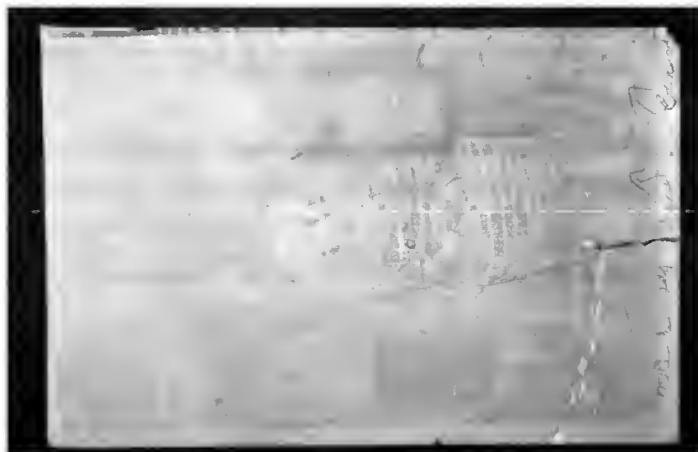

CHUCK ALDERMAN
FIELD

Van Etten Field Named for Man In Wheel Chair All His Life

A Van Etten man, resident in the international infirmary at the University of Maryland, has been named for the hospital. The hospital has approved the name of the Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital. The hospital has approved the name of the Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital.

Charles Alderman, brother-in-law of the Van Etten man, has been named for the hospital. The hospital has approved the name of the Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital.

The Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital, has been named for the hospital. The hospital has approved the name of the Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital.

The Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital, has been named for the hospital. The hospital has approved the name of the Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital.

The Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital, has been named for the hospital. The hospital has approved the name of the Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital.

The Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital, has been named for the hospital. The hospital has approved the name of the Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital.

The Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital, has been named for the hospital. The hospital has approved the name of the Van Etten man, who has been named for the hospital.

Field Dedicated in Van Etten

Chuck Alderman, a resident of Van Etten for 33 years, was a Baltimore Orioles baseball (an laborer) team attorney William Gallop during ceremonies for the Van Etten field which was dedicated in his honor at Sunday. Alderman, who has been in the field for 33 years, was a Baltimore Orioles baseball (an laborer) team attorney William Gallop during ceremonies for the Van Etten field which was dedicated in his honor at Sunday. Alderman, who has been in the field for 33 years, was a Baltimore Orioles baseball (an laborer) team attorney William Gallop during ceremonies for the Van Etten field which was dedicated in his honor at Sunday.

CHUCK ALDERMAN FIELD

JUL • 56

